Although the state of Massachusetts, the Executive Office of Energy and Environmental Affairs and Mass Youth Soccer have not defined limits to the number of spectators at outdoor youth sporting events at this time¹, town programs can define their own specific criteria/limits. Below is a list of the spectator criteria and/or number limits by town participating in Spring Travel soccer based on program-specific responses. Of course all spectators must comply with other State of Massachusetts and Mass Youth Soccer requirements, including but not limited to:

- Wearing masks at all times
- Maintaining social distancing between different family units
- Maintaining a distance from the playing field of at least 8 feet

Town	Rule
Billerica	2 adults per player plus siblings.
Burlington	2 adults per player plus siblings.
Charlestown	2 adults per player plus siblings.
Chelmsford	No specific capacity limits.
Everett	2 adults per player plus siblings.
Lowell	2 adults per player plus siblings.
Malden	2 adults per player plus siblings.
