

WOBURN COALITION AGAINST SUBSTANCE ABUSE (CASA) hosts an

OPEN DRUG FORUM

Wednesday, June 17th, 6:30 pm
Woburn Memorial High School Auditorium

GUEST SPEAKERS WILL INCLUDE:

Marie and Carmen Lucchesse

The Lucchesse's are active in substance abuse prevention and education in the community and are parents of a child who lost his battle with addiction.

Mike Duggan

Mike struggled with his own addiction and became the founder of Wicked Sober Addiction Outreach Program.

Brian Teague

Brian struggled with addiction and now is the manager of Michael's Sober Living House in Wilmington.

Bobby French

Bobby is a Wilmington High School Hall of Fame athlete who battled addiction and is now assistant manager at Michael's House.

Come and listen to their stories, followed by a Question and Answer session. Show your support for the cause. Help us educate the community.

LET'S GET THE WORD OUT!
NO ONE IS IMMUNE TO ADDICTION,
BUT THERE IS HOPE AND HELP.